SAVES Welcomes Aboard Mr. Lawrence Ress

SAVES has hired Mr. Lawrence Ress as an educational specialist. Mr. Ress's responsibilities will include providing technical assistance to the fifteen SAVES service sites.

Lawrence Ress has earned specialist degrees in Educational Leadership from Nova Southeastern University, and in ESOL from the University of Miami. He has been teaching Adult Education for over 15 years.

His background includes experience in Elementary Education, Vocational Training, GED and Community Affairs. He is currently employed as a Professor at Miami-Dade College.

Lawrence also serves as a Faculty Advisor for the University of Miami. He looks forward to promoting the SAVES Program and serving the refugee community.

Active with various neighborhood associations, Lawrence is interested in the revitalization of the Miami River and in planned growth for the region. He speaks Spanish and has traveled extensively throughout many Latin American countries.

SAVES welcomes Mr. Lawrence Ress

His travel experiences in Columbia, Belize, Nicaragua and Mexico will enhance his support of SAVES activities.

Lawrence's ability to focus on details has already proven helpful in proof-reading the extensive communications generated by the SAVES office. An avid Miami Hurricanes football fan, he enjoys bicycle riding, especially to the beach from his home on the Miami River.

Mr. Ress can be reached at (305) 548-3046, ext. 8512 or by e-mail through lress@dadeschools.net.

Prepared with funds from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services through the Florida Department of Children and Families, Office of Refugee Services.
